Directions

Cut the smoked belly cooked until soft into cubes.
Peel the potatoes in their skins cooked on the "Potatoes cooked in their skins" program and grind them when they have cooled down, add sifted coarse flour and semolina, eggs, salt and process them into a stiffer dough, which we roll out into a sheet and cut into squares, using smooth flour for the roll.

We put the smoked belly mixture in the center and wrap the onions fried in lard into dumplings, which we place on a greased perforated GN.

We cook according to the indicated program and after the end of cooking we slightly moisten with a shower.
