Directions

Beat the eggs with the sugar with a hand mixer. Then gradually whisk in the other liquid ingredients. Add the loose ingredients and beat them thoroughly (you don't have to use a whisk, just a wooden spoon, but be careful not to leave lumps in the dough). Grease the baking sheet with butter and sprinkle with breadcrumbs, coconut or coarse flour. Preheat the oven to 190 °C.

Put a teaspoon of cottage cheese on the dough and sprinkle with strawberries and peeled rhubarb cut into small pieces.

In a small bowl, use your fingers to crumbly mix the ingredients to form lumps.

Sprinkle with breadcrumbs and bake for about 30 minutes until golden. Cut it when it's cold.
